CHADDUCK AND WILLIAMS WILL GIVE UM RECITAL JANUARY 27

Priscilla Chadduck, soprano, and Patrick Williams, bass-baritone, will present a free recital Sunday, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall at the University of Montana.

The recitalists, members of the UM voice faculty, will be assisted by Dennis Alexander, piano and harpsichord; Phillip Clarke, piano and harpsichord; Roger McDonald, oboe, Sue Ann Heidel, oboe; Fern Glass, violoncello, and Dianne Kral, alto recorder. Heidel is a senior music major from Broadus, and the others are faculty members.

The program consists of compositions by Purcell, Telemann, Presser, Donaudy, Faure, Debussy, Poulenc and Dello Joio.

Chadduck has taught voice and vocal repertoire at the UM since 1971. She has given voice recitals in the midwest and in several Montana communities and has been a soloist with the symphony orchestras in Butte, Bozeman, Helena and Missoula as well as in cities in Virginia, Ohio and Iowa. She holds bachelor and master of music degrees from the University of Michigan.

Williams joined the UM faculty in 1975 as a teacher of voice, counterpoint and madrigals. Since 1976 he has directed the UM summer music camps on campus and at Flathead Lake. He has been a guest soloist with the Butte and the Missoula Symphony Orchestras. He earned degrees in voice and theory from Eastern Michigan University and is completing dissertation requirements for a D.M.A. in composition at Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N.Y.

Both are active as adjudicators at state music festivals.
